ONLINE BOOKINGS

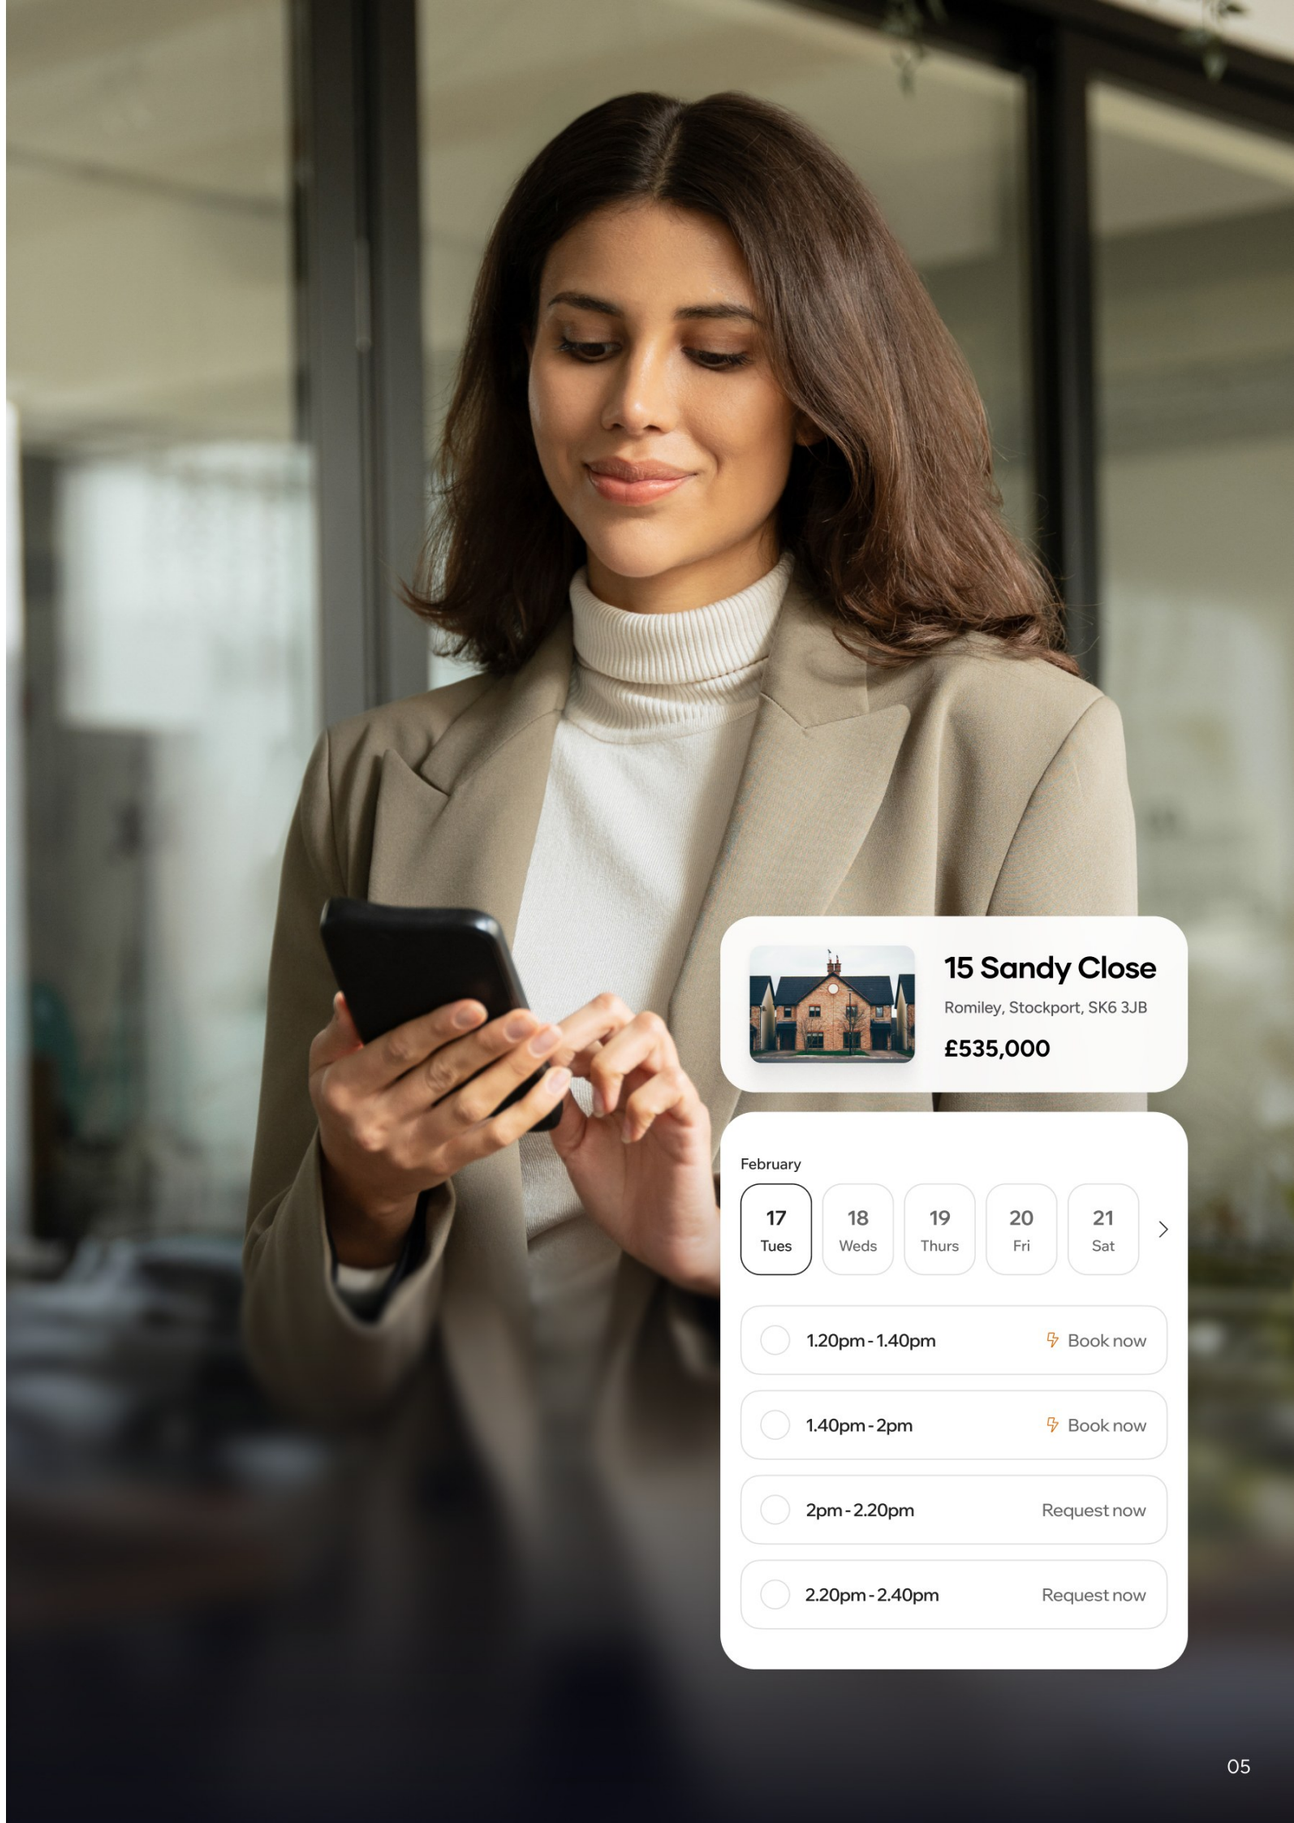

Capture opportunities other agents miss.

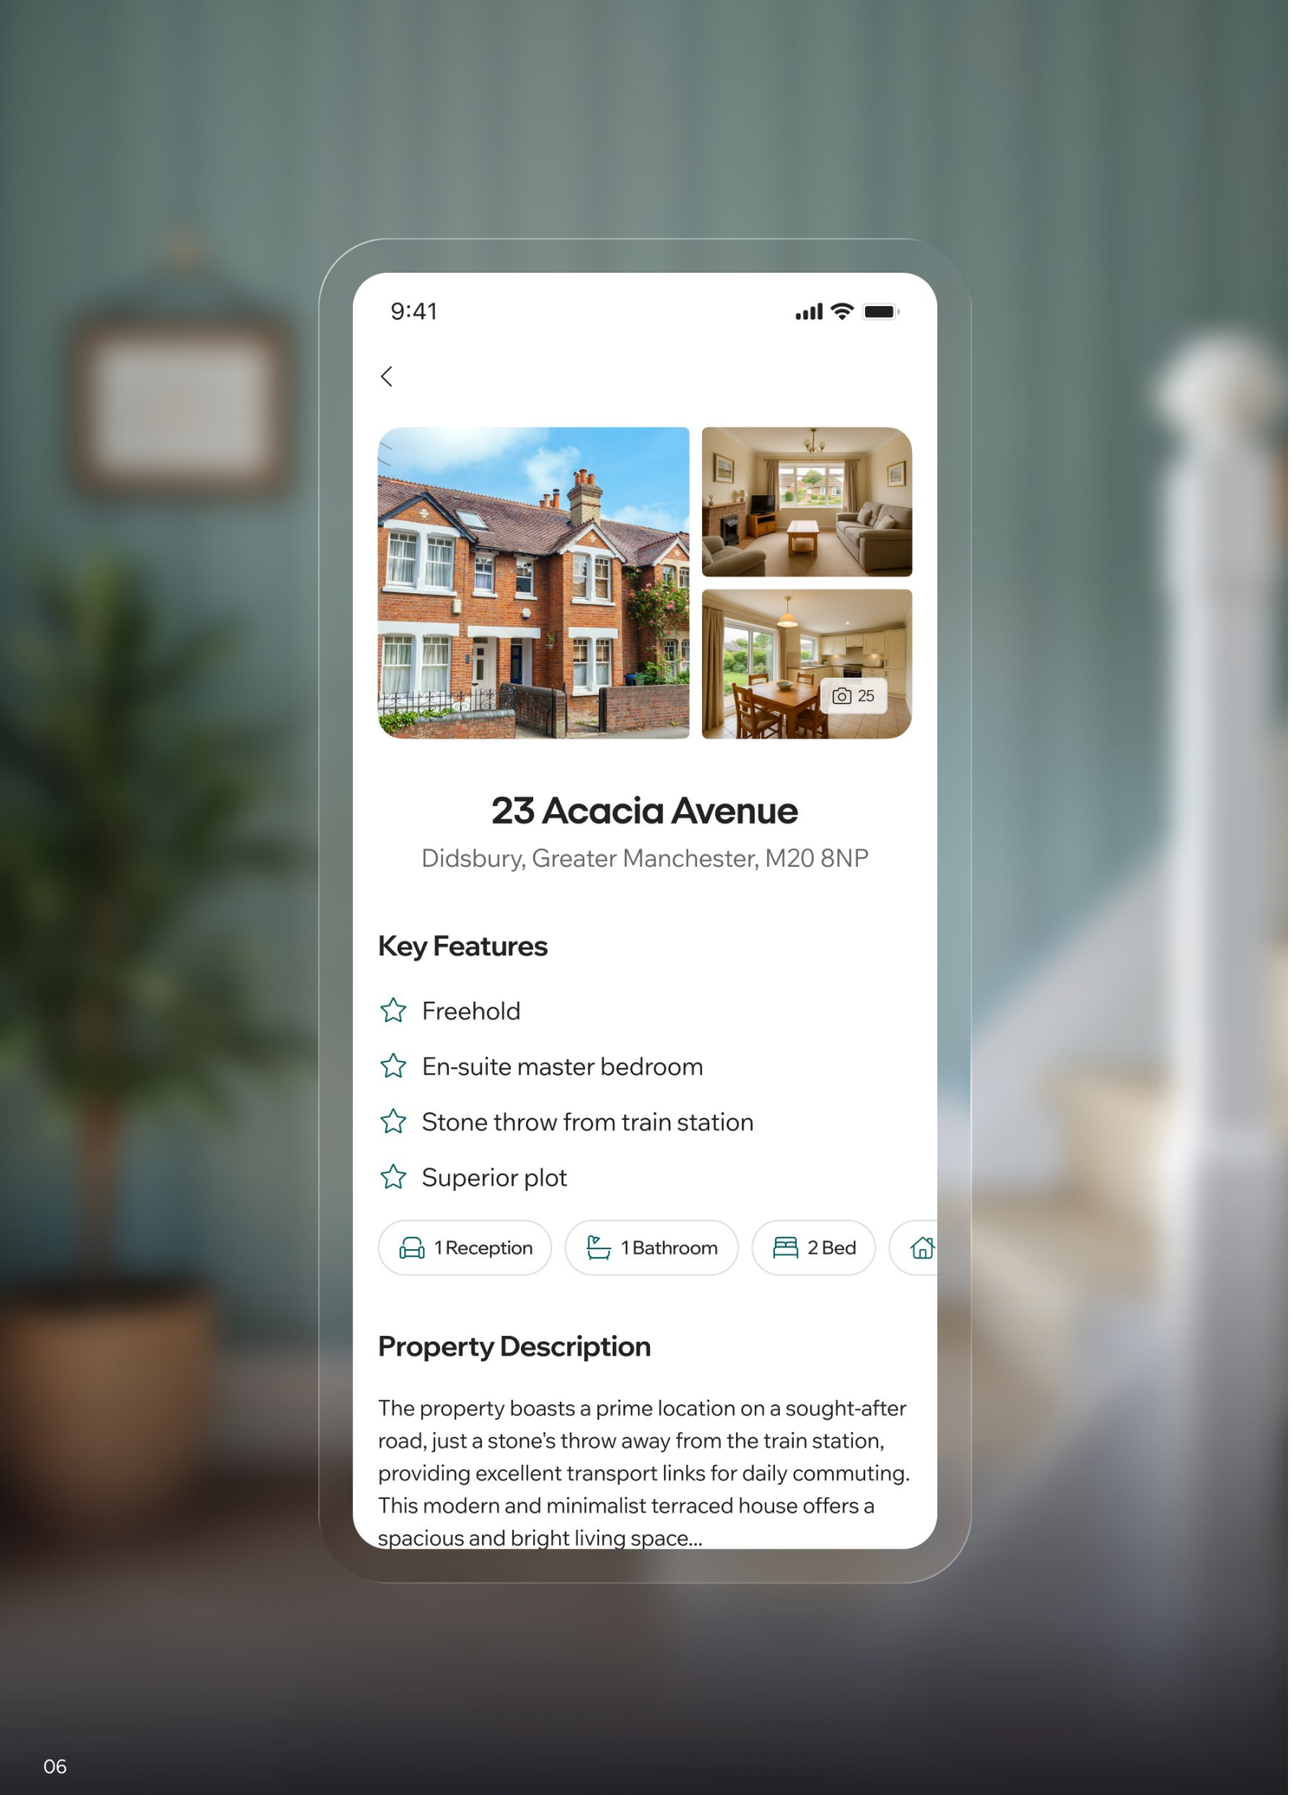

Did you know home hunters are more active in the evening? That's why over 50% of all property enquiries are made outside of agent office hours.

Typically, agents fall victim to missed opportunities with a large proportion of interested buyers getting in touch after their work day is done.

But that's not a problem when your agent is powered by Street.co.uk – allowing prospective buyers to seamlessly book viewing appointments online, at any time of the day or night.

1. Never lose an interested purchaser or viewing.
2. Instantly capture every lead that enquires about your property.
3. From listing to confirmed viewing in a matter of moments.

GREATER DEMAND

Secure the best possible price for your home.

Incredible viewings are the foundation of a successful sale. It's your agent's best chance to really sell your home.

Your agent, powered by Street.co.uk, comes armed with impeccable property knowledge in the palm of their hand... knowledge that extends far beyond the basic details.

By drawing attention to the most compelling and unique aspects of your home, buyers leave excited, enthusiastic and motivated. The result? More buyer interest is generated, leading to increased competition and higher offers.

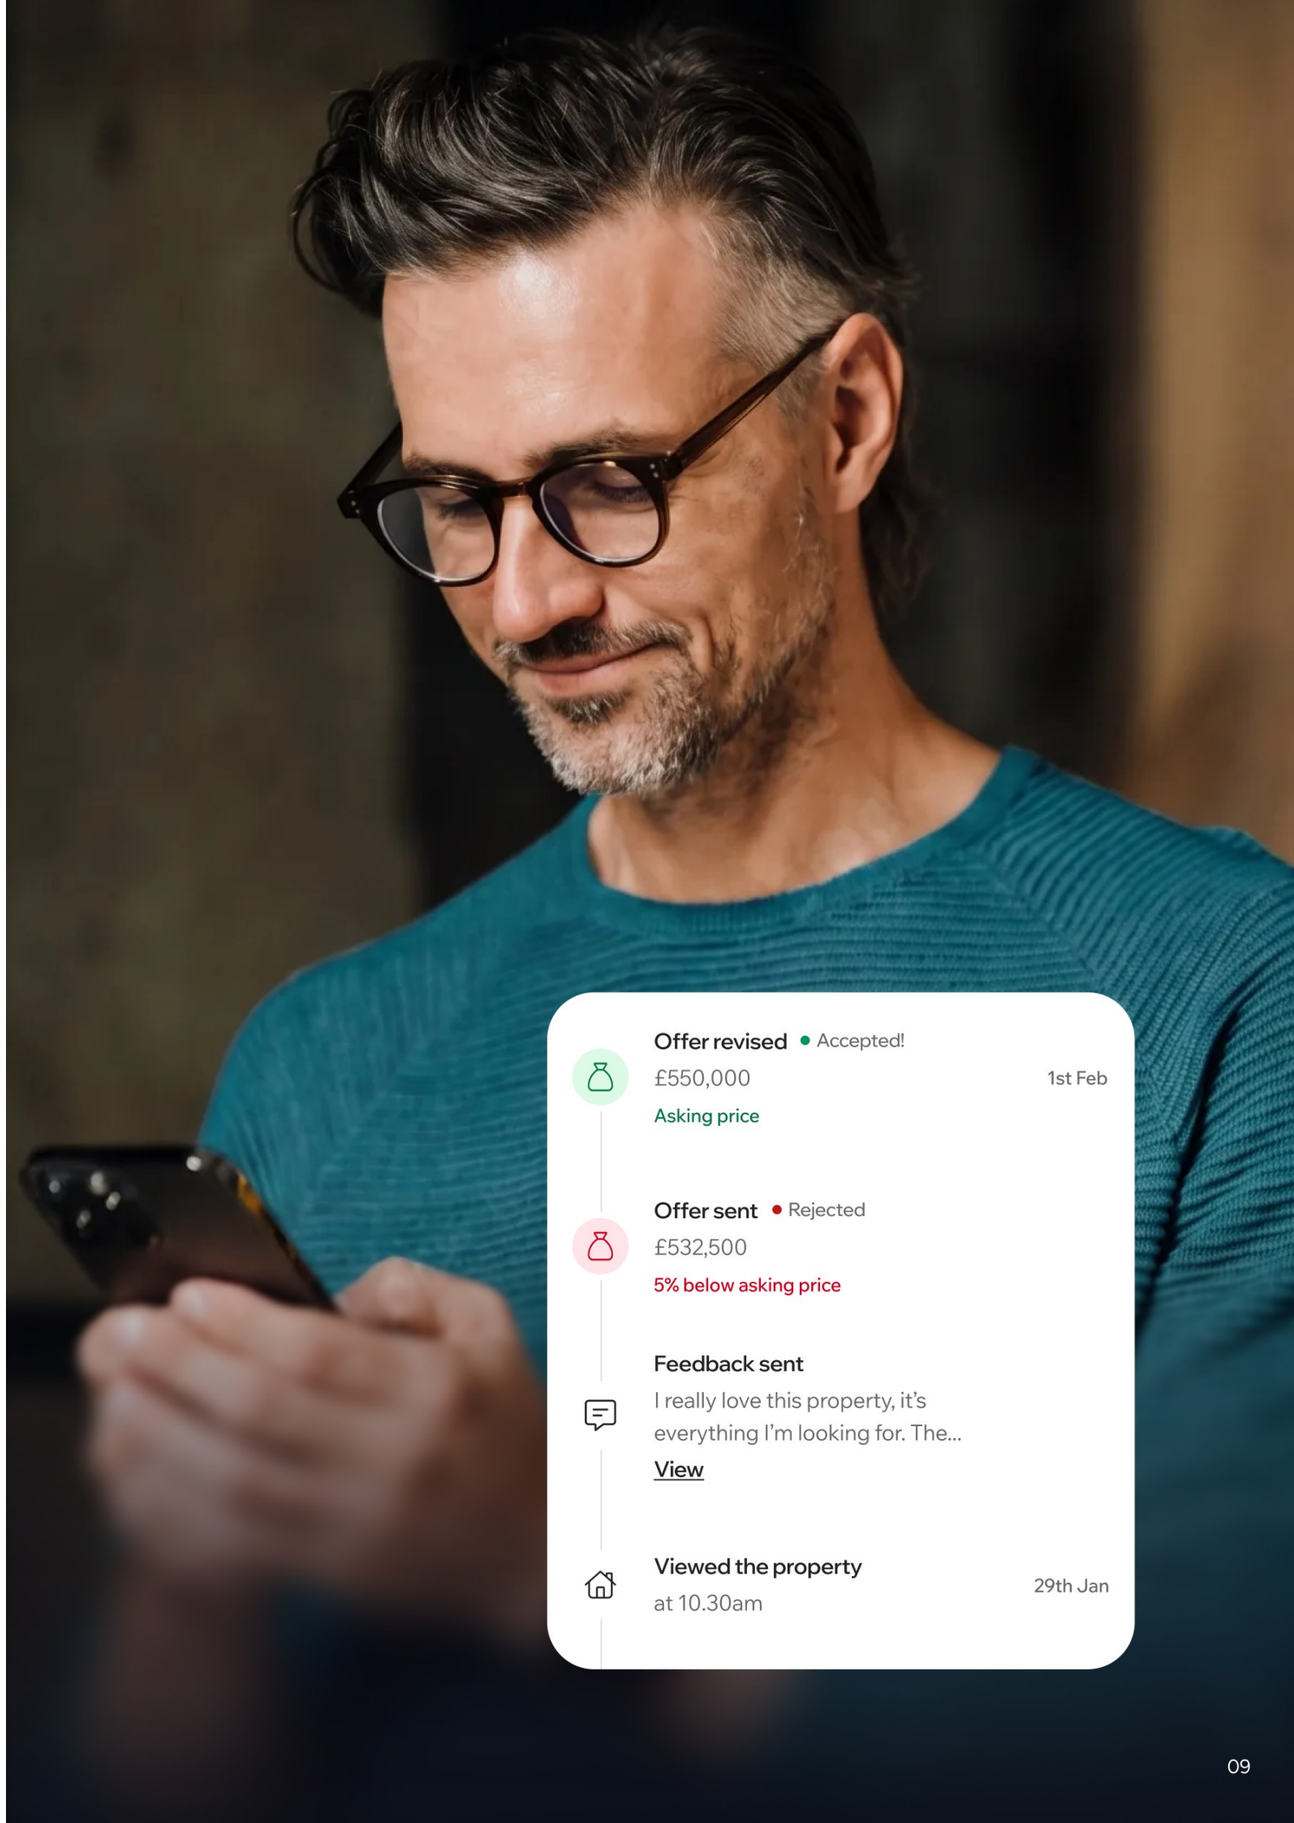

YOUR PERSONALISED PLATFORM

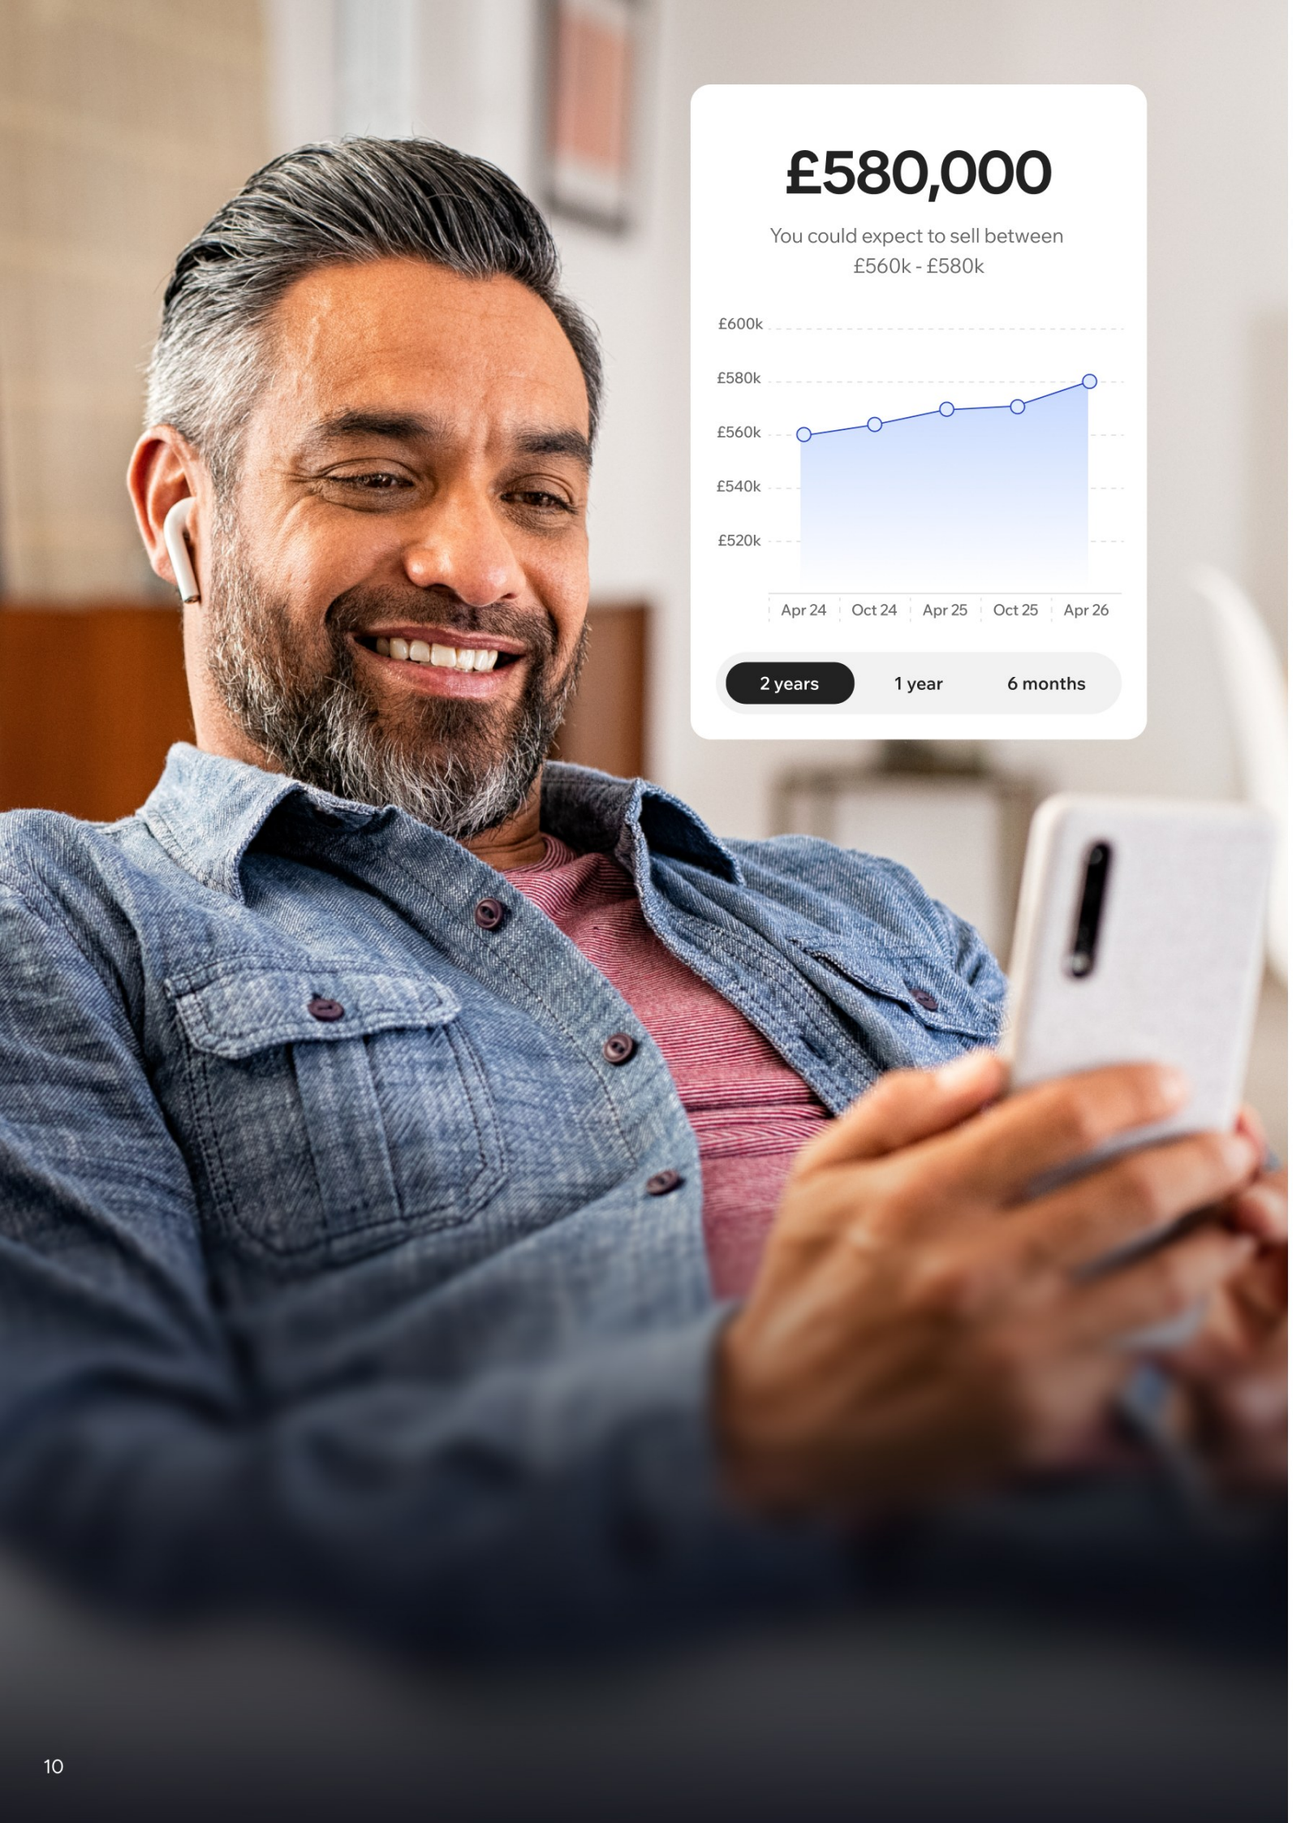

Transparency every step of the way.

Whether it's 5am or 11pm, view where your sale is up to at any given moment through your own online Street.co.uk account. From valuation details to viewing requests... property feedback to sales progression... it's all accessible from your laptop or phone.

Street.co.uk helps to shorten and simplify the journey from instruction to completion by breaking down every step in between.
